

Monitoring and Evaluation of Gender-Based Violence: Methodologies and Field Implications

Nov. 25, 2008

Agenda

- 8:30 a.m. Coffee and light breakfast
- 9:00 a.m. Welcome
- 9:15 a.m. “Monitoring and Evaluation of IPV Prevention Programs: Insights from the IMAGE and SASA Studies”
--Charlotte Watts, Professor of Gender, Violence, and Health, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
- 10:00 a.m. “Violence Against Women and Girls: A Compendium of Monitoring and Evaluation Indicators”
--Shelah Bloom, Gender Specialist, Measure Evaluation
- 10:45 a.m. Break
- 11:00 a.m. “Evidence to Support the Scale-up of Work with Men to Policy Level: Men and Gender Equality Policy Project”
--Margaret Greene, Director, Population and Social Transitions, ICRW
- 11:45 a.m. Wrap Up
--Sunita Kishor, Senior Gender Specialist, Macro International

This technical update marks the first day of 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Violence. It has been organized by the Gender-Based Violence Task Force of the Interagency Gender Working Group (IGWG) and funded by USAID. Presentations and participants list will be available at www.igwg.org.