

Gender and HIV/AIDS

Handout: Human Faces Questions

IGWG

1. Learning about HIV/AIDS

Where do you get your information about HIV/AIDS?

What misconceptions might you have?

Whom do you feel comfortable asking about HIV/AIDS, inside or outside of the family?

2. Fears about HIV/AIDS

What are your greatest personal fears about HIV/AIDS?

How vulnerable do you think you are? Why?

When you think about HIV/AIDS in your family or community, what are you most afraid of?

Gender and HIV/AIDS

Human Faces Questions

IGWG

3. Consequences of HIV/AIDS

If you get HIV/AIDS, how will that affect your role and responsibilities? How would your life change? How would it affect your housing, your access to food, your economic situation? Your daily life? How you spend your daily hours?

If someone in your family gets HIV/AIDS, how will that affect your role and responsibilities? How would your life change? How would it affect your housing, your access to food, your economic situation? Your daily life? How you spend your daily hours?

4. Factors in HIV/AIDS Vulnerability & Impact

Various things can make a person more or less vulnerable to HIV/AIDS and impacted by having family members die. Examples: Social/community norms in gender roles and relations. Cultural practices. Sexual practices. Laws and institutions. Situations of violence or conflict. Race. Ethnicity. Socio-economic status. List how these things can impact you.